BY SIR ELDON GORST.

As we mentioned in our review of the latestellition of Lord Milner's "England in Riggryl," there is an important appendix entitied "Riggry in 1904" from the pen of Sir Edda. Grost. As it contains the desarest account of the new financial arringements, inaugurated by the Anglo French Convention, we have made the following extracts from the article—By the stems of the Anglo French Convention, we have made the following extracts from the article—By the terms of the Anglo French Convention of the permanency of the visits have not been a seriously and the given as a free has a "Riggryt. THE CLIMATE OF EGYPT.

Dr. Engel Bey has rendered a service to the public by republishing his locture before the Egyptian definited. Congress on the Egyptian climate. The subject is, it is needless to say, of the greatest importance, and the unique character of the Egyptian climate raises some interesting meteorological problems. One topic discussed by Dr. Engel is at to whether the climate has been modified, and he thus uran up his observations to far as Cairo is recovered:—

The report and accounts of the Shell Transport and Trading Company (Limited), for the year enting December 31, 1905, are now in the hands of sharebolder. The figures for the year 1902 were assessed in the raport of September 3, 1904, as only consistent of the extent of £11,296 198, 804. All differences in the accounts of that year have been merged in the accounts of that year have been merged in the accounts now presented as for '1909, the predict of which are diminished to the extent that those of 1302 issentited.
